PRICE FIVE CENTS

FIREMEN ARE $500 SHORT ON COLLECTIONS

Gettysburg firemen, about $500 under last year's total for the annual solicitation of funds, today said they are hopeful those persons missed in the annual door-to-door canvass will send their contributions to the engine house, E. Middle St.

Raymond Menges, chairman of the 100th Battle Anniversary Committee which conducted the solicitation for funds last month, said the firemen found fewer people at home than in prior years and the decline in contributions is believed attributable to the large number who were absent when firemen visited.

Individual contributions generally were "about the same as usual" from those contacted.

EQUIPMENT NEEDED

The larger number of those whom firemen did not reach resided in Gettysburg. Generally the men making the solicitation in the area immediately outside Gettysburg found someone at home when they visited.

Menges said the firemen are hopeful of obtaining this year a portion of the money that will be needed for new equipment. Among plans of the firemen for future acquisition of equipment is a replacement for the present ladder truck and later replacement of the older of the two ambulances.

Menges said those who were not contacted by firemen and who wish to donate may either "drop the money off with the quick call operator at the engine house or mail it to Gettysburg Fire Department, E. Middle St. Gettysburg."

The agreement was reached after 18 private meetings of American and Soviet telecommunication experts between May 6 and June 4.

NAME WEAVER TO OFFICE IN FELLOWSHIP

Mayor William G. Weaver has been named vice president of the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania, President Chester S. Shriver said today in reporting on a meeting of the executive committee of the fellowship.

Weaver, who had been chairman of the executive board, was named vice president to succeed James B. Myers, former superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, who resigned the office when he was transferred to the superintendency at Cape Hatteras National Park in North Carolina and thus will be unable to serve actively as an officer in the fellowship.

The position of chairman of the board was left vacant as a tribute to Henry Laurs, a founder of the organization who recently died. The executive board "heartily endorsed" a senate joint resolution introduced by Senator Keating which would permanently designate November 19, date of the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery, as "Dedication Day."

Plans are underway for the annual observance of November 19 with a dinner and a program at the National Cemetery, Shriver said. The occasion will mark the 25th anniversary of the fellowship and a history of the organization will be distributed at the November 19 dinner session. Those wishing a cloth-bound copy of the history prepared by Prof. Frederic S. Klein at $10 are asked to notify Mrs. Bess Kapp, Carlisle St., Gettysburg.

Will Bury Pope In Crypt Below Floor Of Basilica Beloved 'Pope Little John'

By GERALD MILLER

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The millionth mourner passed by the body of Pope John XXIII today and still the human wave rolled through the vastness of St. Peter's Basilica.

Almost a million more were expected to pay tribute before the candle-lit catafalque under the massive basilica dome before Pope John's body is placed in a crypt below the basilica floor tonight.

Meanwhile, the church's cardinals were arriving for the final rites and the June 19 conclave that will elect a successor.

FUNERAL MASSES

The College of Cardinals decreed Wednesday that a nine-day formal mourning period for Pope John will start Friday and end June 17. It will be broken for Sunday June 9 and for the Corpus Christi feast day June 13.

Funeral Masses on the first six days will be said in St. Peter's Basilica by canons of the church. On the last three days the Masses will be celebrated by cardinals.

The cardinals will attend a Mass of the Holy Ghost June 19, then go into conclave at sunset in the Sistine Chapel. Voting will begin June 20. The cardinals will cast four ballots daily in the locked chapel until two-thirds agree on a new Pope.

EXPECT 80 CARDINALS

About 80 of the 82 cardinals are expected to be on hand for the conclave, the greatest number ever assembled to elect a Pope. When Pope John was elected in 1958, 52 cardinals took part in the balloting.

One absentee probably will be Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, still in refuge in the U.S. legation in Budapest. One or two others cardinals may be too ill to travel.

Church leaders and statesmen from both sides of the Iron Curtain will attend the final funeral.

Red Terrorists Destroy U.S. Mission In Caracas

By PAUL FINCH

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Pro-Communist terrorists made good Wednesday night on their threat to destroy the headquarters of the U.S. Military Mission in Caracas.

Eight gunmen overpowered a Venezuelan guard at the building entrance, forced 12 mission employees to take off their clothes, splashed gasoline on the building and set it afire.

The headquarters, an old Spanish colonial building in the fashionable country club section, was ruined. The mission's records were destroyed. None of the mission personnel was harmed.

Gunmen screamed "Yankee Imperialists" at the Americans and smeared walls with their identifying letters, FALN, the Armed Forces for National Liberation.

XAVIER SCHOOL GRADUATES 47 ON WEDNESDAY

Rev. Fr. Thomas O'Donnell, associate director of the University of Notre Dame Foundation, encouraged the Eighth Grade graduates of St. Francis Xavier Catholic School to "keep your faith; remember the precepts of your Catholic training and never forsake your sacraments" in a brief talk at the graduation exercises in the Catholic Church Wednesday evening. Rev. Fr. Joseph P. Kealy, pastor, was the celebrant at the Mass which preceded the exercises.

"You will remember the year 1963 for several reasons," Father O'Donnell said. "You will remember it because it was the year of your graduation. You will remember it because it was the year a great Pope, John XXIII, died. You will also remember 1963 because of Gordon Cooper's 22 orbital flights. However, you will forget the name of the Pope who died in future years and you will forget the name of the astronaut who made those flights. But, you must never forget the teachings of your church and you must never forsake your faith."

EXPRESSES THANKS

Rev. Fr. Kealy also spoke briefly before presenting the certificates of graduation and the awards. He expressed his thanks to the graduates for their "faithfulness in school and in your church." He thanked the Sisters of Mercy who are the teachers, the parents and "all others who have contributed in any way to ward the success we have attained this year."

WILL DRAW TO BREAK TIES IN PRIMARY VOTE

Monday morning at 10 o'clock has been set by the Adams County commissioners as the time for the drawing to break ties resulting from the recent primary election.

The commissioners' clerks, Jacob G. Appier and Ray J. Snyder, said there are approximately 35 offices for which persons are tied for nominations. Most are local offices where the voters had to write in names for the posts.

Those who are tied may come to the commissioners' office to draw for the posts or if they are not present clerks there will make the drawings.

The county commissioners at their meeting Wednesday discussed progress of painting and other improvements at the courthouse.

Unable to secure the placing of aluminum siding for the courthouse tower prior to the centennial and with further examination showing that most of the present wooden siding is still usable with only a few replacements, the commissioners directed the painters to begin work on painting the tower.

An inspection was made of the work being done in the basement entrance to the courthouse. Glass doors, formerly used as the front door of the courthouse and removed to be replaced by a colonial-type door, have been installed in the corridor leading into the building from the basement entrance. An offset corridor has been enclosed to become a storage room. Some renovations have been made in the men's rest room and the hallway leading from the basement entrance door to the stairway to the first floor is being repainted.

Today the commissioners were at the county home and jail making their monthly inspections there.

The preamble to the resolution adopted by the synod noted that "in the light of Christian faith, the church ought to help its people by offering a common witness to guide the individual conscience, we . . . commend the following principles for a policy of social action to the pastors and members of all congregations within the synod:

8-PART STATEMENT

"Be it resolved that we: "Confess before God those multiple prejudices and sinful attitudes that block the way to the Christian establishment of harmony among the people of our communities and assume our personal and corporate responsibility for our actions toward those persons who differ from us.

"Welcome persons, without regard to heredity or environment, to the services of worship, to participate in activities of the congregation, and to membership in the church.

"Promote residential opportunities which will demonstrate ethical responsibility to insure that men actually enjoy the right freely to establish their homes.

IMPLEMENT CIVIL RIGHTS

"Encourage the employment, by our several constituencies; namely, our boards, agencies, congregations and our members in their daily lives; of qualified persons regardless of their race or national origin.

"Encourage all institutions within our society to remove those membership restrictions that derive from sinful motives.

"Encourage the integration of all recreational facilities within our communities.

"Exercise our privilege of citizenship in a free society to insure justice for all men, and to move personally beyond the realm of justice to permit the love of God to recreate our relationships with Him and all persons.

"Give support and encouragement to those in positions, and to those with opportunities, to act responsibly in the implementation of civil rights in all areas of our common life."

GROUNDHOG HUNTER HELD IN SHOOTING

Frederick Gebhart, 25, Gardeners R. 2, was held for court under $500 bail following a hearing Wednesday night before Justice of the Peace John Whitman on a charge of shooting a human in mistake for game on May 22.

The charge was brought by Game Protector Homer Thrush after Gebhart allegedly shot Leroy Miller, Littlestown R. 2, in the right hand while hunting on the farm of Gebhart's father, Leo C. Gebhart, Gettysburg R. 1.

According to the justice's notes of the hearing, Gebhart went to his father's farm to hunt woodchuck. He saw something move and, believing it was a groundhog, fired.

Miller had arrived at the elder Gebhart's farm some time before the arrival of Frederick Gebhart and had been hunting for some time before he sat down on the ground and was leaning against a tree. He was wearing a yellow cap and greenish shirt and black trousers and had his rifle across one knee, with his right hand resting on the knee and rifle. He heard several shots and then saw his right hand was bleeding.

He stood up and Gebhart came to his assistance. Gebhart took Miller to the Warner Hospital for treatment.

According to the testimony, Gebhart was 117 feet from where Miller was seated when he fired the shot which apparently pierced Miller's hand.

At Wednesday's hearing Gebhart entered a plea of innocent and waived reading of the information prior to the hearing.

Coughing Epidemic Hits Calif. Nags

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—A coughing epidemic, spreading like wildfire through the Hollywood Park stable area, has attacked more than one third of the horses on the grounds and reduced the fields for many races.

One of the races on today's card has only six starters and some of the rich stakes races have been affected by the absence of big stars who are ailing.

The epidemic, which hit many harness tracks in the East and Midwest last month, has even hit the huge Belgians who pull the starting gate and the small hackneys used to take patrol judges to their posts. These animals have not been able to work this week.

ECAC ORDERED TO RESCIND ITS TRACK ORDER

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur ordered the Eastern College Athletic Conference today to rescind immediately its order forbidding college athletes to compete in open track meets.

The general said the ECAC action closing AAU meets to collegians violates the agreement he hammered out in January between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and Amateur Athletic Union.

He said the issue "of sanctioning authority" apparently is the major point of contention between the two groups and his ruling should permit a resumption of normal activities by both.

BUSHNELL ABSENT
Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the ECAC, was not available for comment, aides saying he was not in his office today.

MacArthur's statement said, in part: "Some of the confusion which seems to exist over the question of sanctions of athletic meets is apparently due to a misinterpretation of the decision rendered by me on March 12 in reference to this matter. In order that there be no further misunderstanding, I reiterate my ruling on that issue to this effect:

ARE UNDER AAU
"Open meets are under the sole sanctioning power of the Amateur Athletic Union.

"Such meets do not require the sanction of the NCAA, the USTFF or affiliated groups. These latter groups have complete control over their own college meets and in open meets have administrative jurisdiction over their own participating athletes subject only to the limitation contained in the January agreement that they will refrain from any action which prohibits the free participation of any athlete except upon personal grounds. This allocation of authority was successfully followed for many years."

"USE IT WELL"

Quick to come, quicker to go... soon to be forgotten... just like fruit upon the tree... left till it gets rotten... life is but a fleeting dream... swiftly said and done... disappearing in a wink... over before it's begun... time is just a borrowed thing... never to call our own... none can ever hold it fast... it passes by alone... yet the moments we embrace... for such a little while... are tossed aside like driftwood... on a desert isle... few men make the most of time... but the ones who do... leave behind a smoother road... for others to pursue.

Centennial Program

July 1—"OUR HERITAGE"

2 P.M. at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial

Appropriately, the 1963 commemoration will begin at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial on the site of the First Day's clash of the three-day Battle of Gettysburg. A new generation will assemble in a spirit of unity and brotherhood.

The highlights of the first day afternoon program are:

—A mass tribute by the Governors or distinguished representatives of states whose troops fought and fell at Gettysburg.

—An address by the Honorable William W. Scranton, Governor of Pennsylvania.

—A dedication of the Gettysburg commemorative stamp by the Honorable J. Edward Day, Postmaster General.

—A presentation of deeds to additional battlefield land by the Pennsylvania Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association to the Honorable John A. Carver, Jr., Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

—A rededication of a new torch of peace by youthful descendants of those honored dead and posting of the State Flags to musical accompaniment.

July 1-3—"VIGNETTES OF HISTORY"

July 1-3, 9 A.M. to Noon

A series of episodes dealing with the daily behavior of men under the stress of battle will be staged near the very spots where they are supposed to have occurred. They will be dramatized continuously each morning. Vignettes of History will be presented at Spangler's Spring, Devil's Den, Meade's Headquarters, Barlow's Knoll and at points within the town itself. They are written and produced by Mrs. Roy Gifford of the Adams County Centennial Committee.

July 2—"STRENGTH THROUGH UNITY"

Pageant Parade 1 P.M.

On the second day, a two-hour pageant representing the elements of United States history which have built the military might of our Nation will pass through the streets of Gettysburg where the battle raged one hundred years ago. Major General Henry K. Fluck, Commander of the 28th Infantry Division of the Pennsylvania National Guard, will be Grand Marshal.

More than 5,000 members of the Armed Forces, the First City Troop of the Philadelphia Cavalry, the 1st Battle Group of the 3rd United States Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard and Reserve Components will march in the modern military division of the parade.

More than 1,500 Sons of Union Veterans, members of the Confederate High Command, re-activated Civil War Units and North-South Skirmishers Association—all in traditional Blue and Gray—will parade in the historical division. They will march to the music of bands from Illinois, New York, Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania and North Carolina. One of the most interesting bands will be the pride of Tarheel, the famed North Carolina 26th Regiment Band, playing original instruments and arrangements of the Civil War.

July 3—"HIGH WATER MARK"

3 P.M. at Cemetery Ridge

The decisive climax of the three-day Battle of Gettysburg will be memorialized by more than 1,000 men in Blue and Gray.

On July 3, 1963, at 3 P.M.—precisely one hundred years later—500 men in Gray with Stars and Bars flying will emerge as though from the past to cross that fateful field in a dramatization of that storied Southern Charge. And, at the Bloody Angle of the Stone Wall, near the same copse of trees where the assault was stopped on Cemetery Ridge, 500 men in Blue with their own traditional flags will resolutely await them.

But this time there will be no combat or carnage. Instead, the Blue and the Gray will join in fellowship to pledge their common allegiance to that symbol of today's unity—the Stars and Stripes!

Representing the Union soldiers will be Sons of Union Veterans, re-activated Civil War units and North-South Skirmishers Association under the command of Col. O. G. MacPherson, Commanding Officer of the Sons of Union Veterans National Military Department. The Confederate troops will be members of the Confederate High Command and re-activated Civil War units under General-in-Chief of the CHC, Donald Ramsay.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mercury At 92 Degrees: Thursday was the hottest day of the year in Gettysburg with a reading of 92 degrees in the official thermometers of Dr. Henry Stewart, local observer, as this community got a preview of summer which does not officially begin for 10 days.

More of the same kind of weather is predicted as a blazing sun this afternoon promised a new record today.

Local Girl Wins State Scholarship

Miss Mary McMillion, who last week was awarded the Gettysburg high school Alumni scholarship prize, today was announced as the winner of the annual state scholarship in Adams county. She was one of 19 seniors from all sections of the county who took the state exam here on May 7. The winner of the scholarship, which amounts to $100 per year for four years at any accredited college in the state, expects to matriculate at the Shippensburg State Teachers' college in the fall to prepare for a teaching career.

Miss McMillion, who was graduated from the local high school, Tuesday, is a former editor of the school newspaper, The Maroon and White. She is a member of the National Honor Society and last month won the annual DAR prize in an essay contest. She won the alumni scholarship prize of $15 because she led the members of her class scholastically during her four years in high school.

Tablet Will Honor African Missionaries

Plans for the placing of a stone tablet in memory of two Gettysburg Lutheran seminary graduates who were missionaries in Liberia, Africa, and who are buried there, were announced Friday at the sessions of the Deputation Fellowship School of Missions being held this week at the seminary. The tablet will be made of two stones, one sent from Africa, the other to be selected from stones on the seminary campus. The marker, honoring the Rev. Jacob Hiram Straw and the Rev. William Robertson Miller, will be placed in the alcove of the Church of the Abiding Presence, on the seminary campus. The Rev. Gordon Parker, a graduate of the seminary now in Africa, is head of the delegation of African missionaries who are arranging for the placing of the marker.

Lt. Jeanne Hoffman Home After 16 Months Overseas On U.S. Army Nursing Duty: A world war, a French revolution, "mosquitoes that make Gettysburg seem like tame canaries," mud into which one sinks up nearly to one's knees, and ground so gravelly that the soles of a pair of government issue shoes wear out in three months.

Those were some of the experiences of Lieut. Jeanne Hoffman, U.S. Army nurse and daughter of Mrs. Gilbert Hoffman, Baltimore street, and Gilbert Hoffman, an engineer in Alaska. But the "most soul satisfying thing was eating shrimp and fresh strawberries back in San Francisco," according to Lieut. Hoffman.

The Gettysburg nurse, who is back on furlough after 16 months in New Caledonia, Australia and New Zealand, in an interview today said the first thing the contingent of nurses she was with did when they returned from New Caledonia was to head for the nearest restaurant and feast on the foods they had not been able to obtain for 16 long months.

Miss Hoffman and eighteen other Army nurses, all members of the Pennsylvania Hospital unit of Philadelphia, were called into service January, 1942, and sent overseas immediately. Lieutenant Hoffman is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and graduated

Today's Talk

IMPORTANCE

Perhaps the most false of all appraisals is that given to importance as involving the possession of mere money.

No man is important to the world if he isn't useful. No man is important to himself if he doesn't get happiness out of his work. And no man is important at all who hasn't evolved a sane philosophy of living.

Life is forever challenging us — challenging our faith, our courage, our ideals, and our very thoughts.

Great wealth, fame, or unusual nodelat on tesack oesr ilyman talent do not necessarily make one important. I have known examples of each who have expressed the opinion that they were far from happy. I have visited in homes where there has been little evidence of anything except the joy of living and the full acceptance of life's responsibilities.

Our importance is something that we alone mould, exact, and bring to fruition. Often it is just to be kind, to be glad of life, and to refrain from interfering with the work and happiness of others. Strutting around, boasting, and thinking that you are more important than someone else isn't being important. Doing something that is worthwhile, helping someone, without advertising the fact — this is to establish your importance. The important man is the one who is missed when he isn't around.

I know those who think it makes them important to be seen in the company of important people. Ability in achievement is what makes anyone important because it makes one inspiring to others. Intrinsic value is what you place upon yourself — and prove it. Working on important tasks makes a man important — important in that he doesn't take the time to think about his importance!

Just Folks

THE ART OF CONVERSATION
Last night we dined in that old-fashioned way.

When men and women had some time to spend,
And hearts and minds had something good to say;
And each was glad to hear to a friend,
The glasses glistened and the candles gleamed
And oh, how rare the conversation seemed!

V'e sat about the table at our ease
And smoked and talked of days long gone before,
There was no: "Come to bridge now, if you please."
Or: "Let's be off. The car is at the door!"
The outside world seemed miles and miles away,
Dinner was done, but there we chose to stay.

We gossiped, yes, but in a kindly way;
Exchanged ideas on all eternal things,
At times the room rang out with laughter gay;
At times 't knew the silence sorrow brings.
Who spends at dinner but a meager hour
Gives neither wit nor thinking time to flower.

And there we sat, almost till midnight's chime—
Friends at a table, spinning out our dreams—
And who shall say we wasted all that time?
That night is pleasant, if it pleasant seems.
Poor is that mind which has no thought to spare
And in a conversation cannot share.

from Pennsylvania hospital, Philadelphia, in 1940. She worked at the Pennsylvania hospital until the contingent was called into service.

Most of the time she spent at New Caledonia — "although the only thing familiar about Caledonia was the name," she said. The nurses lived in tents and the hospital itself comprised a number of tents. Much of the treatment was improvised with nurses and doctors figuring out how to do what was necessary with what was available. Most of the conveniences available in hospitals here were lacking during the early days of the hospital. Miss Hoffman is on a 25-day furlough and will report to Borden General Hospital, Chickasha, Oklahoma, June 25, to resume her duties as an Army nurse.

An estimated 225,000 electricians will be required in the nation by 1970 but apprenticeship programs at current rates will supply only 70,000.

GOVERNOR SEES FIGHT ON MINE BILL

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton says his administration's proposed anthracite strip mining bill is by far the strongest piece of legislation ever offered on the subject in Pennsylvania's history. But, he still expects a "great deal of opposition" in getting it passed from advocates of stricter legislation and those who want less stringent regulations.

The bill, which proposes complete backfilling for certain anthracite strip mining operations, was introduced in the House Tuesday.

REQUIRES BACKFILLING

It's key feature is a requirement for backfilling to contour strip mines up to 100 feet in depth and pits within 100 feet of a highway or 250 feet of houses, public buildings, schools, churches, commercial or institutional buildings.

Scranton described the bill as "infinitely better" than the present law, which he said "is no good at all."

He added, however, that already the administration has received tremendous reaction from the strip miners themselves indicating they "are not happy with the bill."

SOUGHT MIDDLE GROUND

The main objective of the administration, said the governor, was to create a bill "stiff enough to do the job, yet not so extreme as to seriously endanger its chances of passage in the legislature."

Scranton's statements came just minutes before the House passed a bill, 196-3, regulating strip mining in the bituminous coal regions.

Asked to compare the two, Scranton described both as the best legislation possible for the areas in which they apply.

CITES AIM

He denied an inference that the anthracite bill might be weaker because it does not provide for complete backfilling in all cases.

The bituminous bill calls for complete backfilling of mine voids except in cases where the commonwealth authorizes an exemption for conservation purposes. "The objective of the administration throughout the process of formulating the anthracite bill has been to arrive at a measure that protects natural resources, human life and homes but which also shows concern for those who are dependent upon the coal industry for their jobs and livelihood," Scranton said.

NO BAD EFFECTS

He added he did not feel the bill would hurt employment in the anthracite area.

Scranton said the 116 mines employed a total of 2,582 miners. The bill was sponsored by Republican Reps. Amin A. Alley of Columbia County and Wayne M. Breisch and John Boris of Schuylkill County.

All three were present at the news conference, along with H. Beecher Charnbury, secretary of mines.

TWO YANKEES SURPRISE AT ST. ANDREWS

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Two Americans, Dick Davies and Chris Blocker, have been the surprises of the British Amateur Golf Championship so far this week.

Davies, the defending champion from Pasadena, Calif., has dispelled the belief that he was lucky to win the title last year at Hoylake.

Blocker, a 23-year-old from Jalisco, N.M., now assigned to an Army missile base in Italy, has become a favorite of those Scots who like to bet on dark horse.

SIX SURVIVORS

Davies and Blocker head the surviving six Americans who teed off today in the fourth round of match play.

The other four are Ed Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., Ron Lucetti of San Francisco and Boyd O'Donnell of Hollywood, Calif.

Blocker's opponent today was veteran Michael Lunt of England. Davies was matched against Scotland's John Wilson and Sikes, two-time U.S. National Public Links champion from the University of Arkansas, faced Hugh MacAnespie, another Scot.

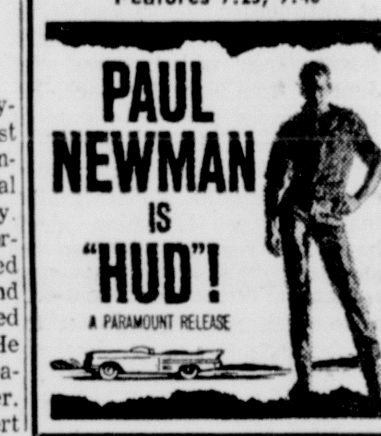

Updegraff was paired against George Dixon of England, O'Donnell against Ronnie Shade, and Lucetti against Scotland's Brian Anderson.

W. Lindvall, 40, chief of the book development section of the U.S. Information Agency, died Wednesday of a heart attack. Lindvall, who joined the USIA in 1955, was born in Minneapolis, Minn.

CUBS SWEEP
DOUBLE BILL
FROM GIANTS

By BOB GREEN

The Chicago Cubs are acting just like they're serious about this game of baseball. Which, of course, just couldn't be.

Everyone knows the Cubs are a team you point at and giggle. Imagine, a nine-man coaching staff and, of all things, an athletic director. Sure, a million laughs.

Only, who's giggling? Certainly not the San Francisco Giants. Nor the rest of the National League. Nor, come to think about it, any one but dyed-in-the-wool Cub fans.

TIE FOR SECOND

The fired-up Cubs swept a doubleheader from the Giants 9-5 and 5-4 Wednesday and vaulted into a tie with St. Louis for second place in the National League, just one game back of the leading Giants.

Rookie Ray Culp threw a three-hitter in leading Philadelphia to a 3-0 edge over the Cardinals; Smokey Burgess drove in the winning run in each game as Pittsburgh swept Cincinnati, 5-4 and 4-3; Milwaukee outlasted New York 11-9 in 10 innings and Los Angeles beat Houston 5-1 behind Sandy Koufax.

The Cubs' sweep of San Francisco made it 10 victories in their last 12 games and six of nine with the league leaders.

5 CUB HOMERS

The Cubs lashed five home runs in the first game, but had to have a little luck to salvage the nightcap. Lou Brock scampered in from third with the tie-breaking run when the Giants' Chuck Hiller dropped a pop fly in short right field in the seventh.

Ernie Banks hit two homers in the first game, and Billy Williams, Ken Hubbs and Brock one each. For the Giants, Harvey Kuenn and Willie Mays had first-game homers, while Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda connected in the nightcap.

Culp, a $100,000 bonus right-hander for the Phils, had allowed only a single by Ken Boyer through 8-2-3 innings against the Cardinals. Boyer then collected his second single and George Altman singled before the 22-year-old rookie struck out Julian Javier to end the game. The loss dropped the Cards to a share of second, one game off the pace.

BIG DAY FOR SMOKY

The Pirates' Burgess broke a 4-4 tie with a pinch-hit single in the eighth inning of the first game and doubled in what proved to be the winner in the nightcap against the Reds.

The Dodgers' Koufax scattered eight hits and stroked a key single in a decisive three-run sixth inning against Houston. The victory, Koufax' eighth against three losses, pulled the Dodgers to within 1½ games of the Giants.

Bubba Morton drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single in the 10th inning for the Braves' winning margin against the Mets. Milwaukee had blown a 9-1 lead behind Warren Spahn when the Mets scoring seven unearned runs in the sixth and tying it in the eighth.

CANDY SPOTS
PICKED TO WIN

NEW YORK (AP)—There'll be at least five 3-year-old colts at the starting line in the 95th running of the $125,000-added Belmont Stakes at Aqueduct Saturday.

But if past performances, workouts and opinion of experts mean anything, the New York Racing Association could save time and effort by making out a $99,200 check in advance payable to Rex Ellsworth.

Standing out like a lone man in a bevy of bathing beauties is Ellsworth's Candy Spots, the mottled chestnut who has bowed only once in nine starts and has won four $100,000-plus races this year. His lone defeat came in the Kentucky Derby, where he ran third behind John W. Galbreath's Chateaugay.

Chateaugay, runner-up to the California-owned Candy Spots in the Preakness, will be among the small field in the Belmont. But off his disappointing workout Wednesday, he doesn't figure to be on the same race track with the son of Nigromante-Candy Dish.

HOWIE YOUNG
IS SHIFTED TO CHICAGO

MONTREAL (AP)—Badman Howie Young, long a problem for the Detroit Red Wings, went to Chicago in the completion of an earlier trade and six other players changed teams in a mild draft session that closed the National Hockey League's annual three-day meeting.

Young, who collected a record 273 minutes in penalties last season, was turned over to the Black Hawks Wednesday in the completion of an earlier deal that brought the Red Wings defenseman Ron Ingram and rookie goalie Roger Crozier, with St. Louis last season. There are indications Young may be farmed to Buffalo of the American League.

DETROIT GETS 3

Detroit picked up three players in the mid draft session, Boston two and New York one. Toronto, Chicago and Montreal passed.

Among the better known players changing uniforms were right wing Andy Hebenton of New York, drafted by Boston, and Detroit left wing Val Fonteyne, drafted by New York.

Detroit picked up Irv Spencer, a forward-defenseman with Boston; Ted Hampson, a center with New York; and Art Stratton, a Chicago center who played with Buffalo of the American League last season.

In addition to Hebenton, Boston drafted Wayne Rivers, a minor leaguer owned by Detroit.

NEED PLAYOFF
IN SENIOR GOLF
MATCH TODAY

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—Partly because one told the congressman, it'll take an 18-hole playoff today to decide the 59th annual U.S. Seniors Golf Association Championship.

Rep. Jack Westland, 58, former U.S. Amateur champion from Everett, Wash., and John Bartlett, a 56-year-old oil marketing executive from San Marino, Calif., shared first place after the 36 holes of regular competition with 146 totals.

After leading the field of 400 seniors through the first round Tuesday with a 71, Westland came to the last hole at the Apawamis Country Club course Wednesday needing a birdie to beat Bartlett by one stroke. His 9-iron approach nestled five feet from the pin. Sinking the five-footer would mean the championship.

WASN'T TOLD

But no one had told Westland he needed to sink the putt and he hadn't asked anyone. His putting stroke was too timid and the ball stopped a foot short. He holed out for a par 4, a 75 for the day and a 146 total—matching that of Bartlett, who was in the clubhouse waiting it out with his second straight 73.

"I didn't know," said Westland, who won the National Amateur title in 1952. "If someone had told me, I'd have gone for it boldly. Instead, I was just playing it safe."

The two West Coast golfers wound up three strokes ahead of the next in line—Egon Quaitor of Jenkintown, Pa., and J. Walcott Brown of Sea Girt, N.J., tied for third with 149. Warren Brown of New York was fifth with 150.

BUILDING PROGRAM

LOUISVILLE (AP)—A $165,000 building program was approved Tuesday by directors of Churchill Downs Race Track.

Wathen R. Knebelkamp, Downs president, told stockholders the money would be used to build more mutual windows and rest rooms in the infield, two barns, a grandstand restaurant and for general repairs.

YANKS REGAIN
ORIOLES BUT LOSE MANTLE

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle's cast stretches from his toes to his knee. And quite possibly to the heart of the New York Yankees.

The blond belter, four-time home run champion and three-time Most Valuable Player, suffered a broken bone in his left foot Wednesday night as the Yankees whipped Baltimore 4-3 and regained the American League lead by .004 points over the Orioles.

Doctors estimate the injury—a fracture of the third metacarpal bone, a small bone running across the top of the foot—may keep the Yankee slugger out of the world champions' lineup for as long as six weeks.

GOING TO HURT

And while no player on the Yankees is indispensable, there is little doubt that the men in pinstripes are a radically changed club with Mantle on crutches. That's been shown in the past when the $100,000-a-year center fielder has been sidelined.

The injury came as Mantle ran into the center-field fence—there is no warning track at Memorial Stadium—trying to catch a homer hit by the Orioles' Brooks Robinson. His spikes became entangled in the wire fence as he backed up for the ball and his left foot twisted as he fell.

CHISOX, ANGELS SPLIT

While the Yankees were losing Mantle and beating Baltimore, the cago White Sox lost an opportunity to take over first place. Needing a doubleheader sweep over the Los Angeles Angels, the White Sox won the opener 3-0 but lost the nightcap 8-2.

Elsewhere, Minnesota continued to move up by downing Kansas City 4-0 and Detroit edged Cleveland 5-4. The Boston-Washington game was rained out.

The Yanks' victory came when Roges Masis sosed in the eighth inning after Tom Tresh banged into Oriole catcher Dick Brown, jarring the ball loose as Brown cocked his arm to throw to first on a doubleplay attempt.

WIN FOR FORD

The umpires disallowed the Orioles' contention that Tresh had deliberately bumped Brown. The win went to Whitey Ford, 7-3.

The White Sox won the opener on a bases-empty homer by Dave Nicholson and a two-run shot by Jim Landis. John Buzhardt scattered nine hits for his sixth victory against two losses.

The Angels won the nightcap with a seven-run sixth inning uprising against Ray Herbert, 5-3. Albie Pearson, who stroked four hits, broke a 2-2 tie in the rally with a bases-loaded single. Ken McBride, 5-6, was the winner with a five-hitter.

CASH HOMER WINS

Rich Rollins and Bob Allison homered for the Twins in support of rookie Jim Roland, who shut out the A's on two hits until he was forced out with elbow trouble after seven innings.

Norm Cash's ninth inning homer provided the margin of victory for the Tigers when Al Luplow homered for the Indians in the bottom of the inning. The winner was Jim Bunning, 4-5, the loser Jim Grant, 3-6.

SKY DIVERS
BACK AT OVAL

The Baltimore Sky Divers Club, headed by Jack Black, will perform a night-time, free fall exhibition at the Lincoln Speedway, near Abbotstown, this Saturday night. Charles England and George Damon will round out the trio who will attempt to land on the Speedway after a drop of 7,500 feet.

Last year Black succeeded in his attempt. Both of the other jumpers landed in the nearby areas of the speedway. Lights and flares will mark the descent of the jumpers. The exhibition will take place during a period of intermission from the stock car show.

Gene Goodling, Stovetown, continues to protect his season point lead. Three features and a second place showing last week have the sportsman driver out in front of the competition by 125 points.

WILL ADD SEATS

Promoter Hilly Rife announced this week that, "Due to the large crowds supporting the Lincoln Speedway, we are embarking on another expansion program. More seats will be erected as soon as we can get them. The comfort of the fans is a most important ingredient for a successful track. We offer top notch competition with the biggest names in stock car racing. We will continue to make the race fan's evening as enjoyable as possible."

Among the top drivers expected Saturday: Bobby Hersh, Bob by Abel, Neil Haight, Bud Folkenroth, winner of last week's feature; Diz Dean, Ralph Smith, Willie Musseman, Pee Wee Poblletts, Bill Gilbreath, Ben Landis.

GETTYSBURG
LITTLE LEAGUE

A pair of eight-run innings gave the Rotary an overwhelming 18-2 win over the Gettysburg National Bank Wednesday evening on the Little League diamond. The loss was the second straight for the Bankers and the win gives the Rotary possession of first place, replacing the losers.

The Rotary managed but nine hits, but were greatly assisted by 14 walks issued by five Bank hurlers. Terry Bowling gave up five safeties, struck out six and walked two in registering his first victory of the season.

Les Lindemar led the Rotary attack with three hits while Bud Johnson collected two for the Bank.

Tonight at 6:15 the G. L. Bream team will oppose the Moose.

A win for the Breammen would give them a tie for first place.

CONEWAGO
LITTLE LEAGUE

Four runs in the fifth inning without benefit of a hit enabled Fee's Cardinals to nip the Knights of Columbus 4-2 Wednesday evening and pull into a tie for second place.

The game resolved itself into a fine pitchers' duel between Bob Sherdell, the winner, and Jeff Brady, loser.

Both of the Knights' runs came in the top of the third on a single by Brady.

Bill Conrad of Fee's secured his team's only hit in leading off in the first inning but in the bottom of the fifth Fee's scored four times on three walks and a pair of errors.

Tonight the Moose meet Sylvia Shue.

Vast, Complex World Is Used By Millions Under Concrete Canyons Of N.Y.

By CHARLES WEST

NEW YORK (AP)—A man could live his entire life under New York City and his body would have to emerge into the air and sunlight only to be buried.

There is no room for graveyards in the vast and complex world inhabited by thousands and used by millions, beneath the city of concrete canyons and skyscraper mountains.

No map can depict the underground development. No man knows all that's there.

BOOTLEGGERS' TUNNEL

Diggers frequently turn up a long-lost item. Among other things they have found a forgotten British dungeon and a bootlegger's tunnel leading from the Hudson River to what was a prohibition era speakeasy owned by Dutch Schultz.

Even at the turn of the century, builders of the city's first subway system weren't sure what they would find.

Writing 25 years later, the chief engineer, Gen. William Barclay Parsons, recalled: "Water pipes could be located by occasional valve boxes and the sewers by manholes, but little was known of their physical condition or connections."

75 LINES TO MOVE

"The gas company supposed that it owned pipes in certain streets because the householders received gas and paid for it; but as to how it was delivered, the company could not tell."

Each utility company and each city department maintains a separate map to show only its underground system. The development includes enough telephone cables and wires, almost 19 million miles, to string 75 lines to the moon; enough electric cable, 61,500 miles, to wrap twice around the earth and tie a bow as broad as the United States.

A person can live at a hotel in Brooklyn, shop at some of the best stores in Manhattan, attend concerts and visit museums, get a marriage license and answer a court summons, journey to the Bronx and Queens, and never go outside.

SULTAN OF SEWERS

A youth in Queens—just to see if he could do it—rode all the lines on the subway with a single token. With the necessary doubling back he traveled more than 400 miles in 25 hours and 36 minutes.

Underground New York has developed its characters—like legendary Teddy May, the "Sultan of the Sewers," or Maurice the Bookman.

Salty, tobacco-chewing Teddy May died a few years ago at the age of 85 after spending a half-century working with the sewers of the city.

5,000-MILE SYSTEM

From May, city fathers got much of the information for the map of a 5,000-mile system which started haphazardly from a roofed over boat canal. The roof became Canal Street and the sewer in still in use.

Maurice, a gray-bearded denizen of Greenwich Village who keeps his family name secret, has fought a running battle with concessionaires for years about the thousands of books he keeps stored in subway station lockers.

Another character worked out an elaborate timetable of late trains and routes to enable him to sleep undisturbed by any of the subway system's 972 policemen, the fifth largest police force in the state. His experiences gave the title to the Broadway musical, "Subways Are For Sleeping."

Danville Official Mourning Cut Short

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A protest by a retired Baptist minister cut short the city of Danville's expression of mourning of the death of Pope John XXIII.

Fred Misch, commissioner of public property, ordered the flags in City Square and on City Hall flown at half staff Tuesday. Three hours later he ordered them raised again after receiving a telephone call from the Rev. Dan Eckert.

The Rev. Mr. Eckert said he protested against the display after having telephoned the White House and learned that the flag was not being flown at half staff there.

Gov. Combs Accepts Rifle Challenge

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—A challenge from Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton for a long-rifle shooting match — delivered by eight Pennsylvania horseback riders who traveled 917 miles—has been accepted by Kentucky Gov. Bert Combs.

"We didn't think you would get here," Combs told the riders when they arrived Tuesday after 21 days of horseback riding. "Actually you probably wouldn't have made it without the aid and comfort of the Kentucky Long Rifle."

The challenge to Combs was read by Fred E. Gehr, one of the riders. It proposed a rifle match between Pennsylvania and Kentucky marksmen to settle a dispute over which state has the rightful claim to the frontier weapon.

Pennsylvania claims the Kentucky Long Rifle is misnamed since it was made in Pennsylvania.

FIND BODY OF MISSING GIRL

WELLSBORO, Pa. (AP)—An 18-year-old girl, missing from her home since Monday night, was found dead Tuesday night at the bottom of a 20-foot embankment near her home.

Dist. Atty. Robert Kemp said "it looks like a freak accident."

An autopsy was ordered. The Wilson girl was last seen Monday at 11:30 p. m. at the home of a brother who lives nearby.

IS GROWING AFTER 7 YEARS

MACON, Ga. (AP)—For seven years, Flint Hunter did not grow at all.

Since last September, he has grown three inches.

That makes him a three-footer at 10 and he is still growing.

Flint is in the fifth grade but he is about the size of a small first-grader.

His growth halted after serious surgery at 3. A malignant tumor and his pituitary gland had to be removed from the base of his brain.

He surprised his doctors by recovering. With his pituitary gone, his growth was a problem until recent treatment restored it.

Flint, from babyhood on, has been somewhat remarkable. He walked at 7 months. A month later his mother had to get him off the roof of the house where he had climbed.

STARTED SECOND GRADE

He never was in the first grade. He started school in the second grade.

Flint is a bug on science, chemistry, biology and electronics. He takes motors and engines apart and can put them back together.

His teachers say he is a prospect for scholarship attainment at the genius level. Flint says he'd rather quit school and go to work. He wants his dad to finance him in the construction business.

The pint-size pupil has a big boxer dog, Beauregard No. 2, which follows him to school and escorts him home.

The lad's full name is Roger Flint Hunter Jr. but when he was 2 or 3 he got tired of Junior or Little Roger. He said he wanted to be called Flint — and he has been ever since.

Businessmen Believe Increased Debt Load Means Bright Economy

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Debt totals are rising on all fronts. Individual Americans are pushing their private debt load to new highs even as their various governments are.

Corporate debt has risen more moderately largely because many companies have had more than the usual amount of cash on hand to finance their activities. But if expansion gets up steam in a new business upturn, they too may be borrowing more.

The role that debt may be playing in the rising volume of stock trading also is being watched. And official curiosity about this will become more keen if the public is finally returning to the market after a long absence credited to disillusionment in the market crash of a year ago.

INCREASE CASH PAYMENT

The present margin rules call for cash payment of 50 per cent, and the rest on credit. The margin was cut to 50 from 70 per cent last July when the markets were ailing.

The federal debt has pushed through the old legal ceiling of $305 billion. This was expected and Congress raised the ceiling to accommodate it. The legal limit may be jacked up still higher before the summer ends.

Debt totals of various state and local governments are expected to go on climbing because of the need for providing more services at once to growing and more demanding populations. Also a number of state legislatures have been reluctant this year to vote higher taxes requested by governors to pay for larger expenditures.

PERSONAL DEBTS UP

Individuals took on a record load of new installment debt in April and probably as much or more in May. More than $5 billion of new credit was extended in April, while repayment on old obligations came to $4.5 billion. Total outstanding rose to $49 billion. Adding single payment loans, charge accounts and service credit, the Federal Reserve Board figures total consumer credit as rising to $63.3 billion.

The biggest gain was in outstanding auto credit, which hit $20.1 billion.

This total seems sure to have risen again in May, since new car sales last month set a record for May of more than 700,000.

MORTGAGE CREDIT RISES

Mortgage credit also is rising. More homes are being started, as is usual in warm weather months. The growing population is a cause. Another is easier mortgage terms being offered by many competing lending institutions whose available funds have risen since they raised their interest rates on savings.

Businessmen regard the rise in consumer debt as both a result of brightening economic conditions and a sign of still further improvement. If Americans are willing to take on more installment debt for new cars or appliances, producers and their suppliers will prosper. And they will be encouraged to increase output, or modernize their plants, or build new ones.

Increasing government spending also puts more money into the economy, regardless of worries over meeting the debt later on.

And as long as the general economy is growing, and personal incomes are increasing, and total assets owned by individuals are also swelling, the rise in private and public debt is held by many economists and politicians to be a minor threat.

Business, government and families all increasingly operate on credit. The debt total rises. So does the wherewithal to meet it.

HAS MONSTER WATCHING JOB AT LOCH NESS

LONDON (AP)—Richard Need is a man with an unusual pastime—monster watching.

Each year this 31-year-old documentary film maker drives 550 miles from London to Loch Ness in northern Scotland to watch and wait and film a monster—if one should ever show itself.

"At one time I felt there was something in the loch, but was not quite sure what," he said.

NEW BUREAU SEEKS LOST FAMILY HEADS

By MICHAEL KEATING

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—An obscure office in the New York State Department of Social Welfare is providing guidance to other states in a national effort to cut $252 million a year from the cost of public welfare.

The office is the Bureau of Registry and Location. Its task is to find the whereabouts of fathers and mothers who desert their families, leaving them to taxpayers to support.

If located in another state, the parents can be prosecuted under "the runaway pappy act."

REQUIRED BY UNCLE SAM

The bureau—in full-time operation slightly less than a year—has a 31 per cent record of achievement. A new federal regulation requires all states to set up something similar.

The federal government estimates that desertion is responsible for 18 per cent of cases receiving aid-to-dependent children. That comes to the $252 million a year figure.

New York and other states have laws requiring parents to support their children. But first the parents must be found.

RECORDS ARE HELD

The key to the New York operation is that it has access to state records that normally are confidential—tax reports, correction department files, and unemployment insurance records.

If a deserter is employed in the monster).

Need has never seen a monster, but he is hoping.

He is convinced that a really well-organized expedition could settle once and for all the mystery of the 24-mile long loch. But the difficulties, even for a massive scientific expedition, would be immense. At its deepest the loch goes down more than 700 feet—deeper than the North Sea, and the brackish black waters make diving and underwater camera work particularly difficult.

The 15-5 record posted by Penn State's basketball team last season was the school's best mark since the 1952-53 season.

state, the bureau can obtain the name and address of the man and his employer. If the man is collecting unemployment insurance, the bureau can learn where the checks are being picked up.

If the man is in jail, in a mental institution, or has visited a friend in jail correction department records will show this.

When the local welfare official knows where his quarry is, he begins legal proceedings to make him assume his responsibilities. Under the runaway pappy act—a uniform law passed by all the states and territories—a support proceeding begun in one state can be tried in another, eliminating the need of returning a man home for trial.

The effectiveness of the bureau is curtailed when a deserter leaves the state and has no contact with any state agency. No adequate machinery exists for location of these individuals. Rosenblatt says. He hopes that an effective interstate information exchange can begin when all states establish a central registry of deserting heads of households.

NAVY TRIES TO ATONE TO JFK FOR FAILURES

By FRANK CORMIER

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—The Navy tries today to make amends to President Kennedy for two successive missile failures in presidential demonstrations.

But first, Kennedy flies to San Diego, Calif., to deliver a major address on education problems—and his plans for meeting them—at San Diego State College commencement exercises.

Kennedy witnessed one Navy fizzle Wednesday at the White Sands, N.M. missile range—site of the first atomic bomb blast 18 years ago.

FAILED LAST YEAR

The sailors fired a Talos missile at a Drone fighter plane and missed by a desert mile.

Last year, in maneuvers off the North Carolina coast, the Navy similarly disappointed Kennedy when a Bullpup missile fired from shipboard failed to intercept a Drone target.

El Paso, a Texas border city 35 miles from White Sands, was Kennedy's first overnight stop on a five-day, five-state, western tour that will end in Honolulu Sunday with an address on "the rising problem of race relations" to the National Conference of Mayors.

VISITS 3 STATES

Kennedy hit three states Wednesday—Colorado for a commencement address at the Air Force Academy and a tour of North American Air Defense Command headquarters at nearby Colorado Springs; New Mexico's White Sands for the missile show, and El Paso for politics.

At El Paso's International Airport, Kennedy gave a strictly partisan speech to a cheering, shouting audience.

Tens of thousands of enthusiastic Texans then cheered the President as he drove slowly along the 10-mile route to his hotel.

TO INSPECT CAMP

After giving the commencement address at San Diego State today Kennedy was to inspect the Marine Corps "boot camp" in the same city, fly by helicopter to the aircraft carrier Oriskany for a classified briefing on anti-aircraft warfare, then continue to the attack carrier Kitty Hawk.

During an overnight stay aboard the Kitty Hawk, the Navy arranged to give the President a view of anti-aircraft, antisubmarine and frogmen maneuvers in both daylight and dusk.

Then, even if all else fails, the Navy again will be host to Kennedy on Friday at his China Lake, Calif., test station where advance weapons and systems will be demonstrated.

Arlene Francis Leaves Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Arlene Francis, injured May 26 in a two-car auto accident which took the life of another woman, was released Wednesday from Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. Her condition was described as good.

Miss Francis' car skidded on wet pavement, crossed a road divider and struck another vehicle head on.

The 55-year-old actress, a panelist on the television show "What's My Line," suffered a broken collarbone, a concussion, scalp cuts and bruises.

Kindergarten Kids Like New Carpet

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—A classroom experiment has pupils rolling on the floor.

It began when wall-to-wall carpeting was installed recently in the kindergarten classroom of the Seymour Elementary School.

The school system is trying to determine whether carpeting is more durable and easier to maintain than other types of floor covering.

The five-year-olds apparently like the idea, according to Tamar Cohen, the kindergarten teacher.

Girl Scouts Form Penn's Woods Unit

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—The organization of the new Penn's Woods Council of Girl Scouts was completed here Wednesday.

It includes councils from Hazleton, Wilkes-Barre, Berwick, Bloomsburg, Shenandoah, and single girl scout groups from Luzerne, Carbon, Schuylkill, Columbia and Northumberland Counties.

Edward Zalesky of Weatherly is the executive of the newly-created council, which will have its office in Kingston.

Major League Stars By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BATTING—Lou Brock, Cubs, collected five hits in nine at-bats, including double, triple and homer and scored six runs in 9-5, 5-4 doubleheader sweep over National League leading San Francisco that moved Cubs to within one game of first place.

PITCHING—Ray Culp, Phillies, posted third shutout with third three-hitter, checking St. Louis en route to 6-0 victory.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

BAREFOOT GIRL. The next best thing to walking barefoot in the grass is wearing this summer's barefoot sandals. There's not a "hot foot" in the lot!

If you've a pretty foot, prettily groomed, try the thonged sandal for home and casual wear. It's the coolest!

For air-conditioned comfort on other occasions, look to pared shapes with delicate straps or sling-backs. They're as smart as they are breezy. And they can be wonderfully flattering to the foot. Feminine as all-get-out!

A long, slim leg and foot takes to a strap that skirts the ankle, like a long neck to a choker. The T-strap is the trick that trims a plumpish leg and foot, particularly if the crossbow falls well below the ankle.

When in doubt, a sling solves all riddles. It looks so flirty, too! Colors add to effects. Go for neutrals—pale to dark for general daytime wear. Neutrals are both becoming and versatile. But do revise your thinking on what the neutrals are. From the black-brown-navy-beige range, they have widened their scope to include such misty shades as willow and saffron.

In the evening, you have carte blanche to kick up your heels in brights and lights. But remember that the brighter or lighter a shade, the more attention it calls to the foot. So beware, if there are times when you wish you could sit on your feet.

Then a compromise is in order, and actually it could prove a very subtle fashion gambit. Wear willow shoes with a pastel dress and watch the fashion fireworks!

Cite Income Boom In "CM" Nations

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The Executive Commission of the European Common Market has reported a boom in the real incomes of families in its six-nation membership.

In its sixth annual report, the commission said Wednesday the real income of families during the 1958-1962 period has risen by 25 per cent in West Germany and Italy.

Beginning of the tourist season was shown by the report, with the amusement tax bringing in $1,015.57 during the month. Justices of the Peace Robert P. Snyder and Anna E. Kuhn turned in $123 for seven building permits, two demolition permits and three sign permits.

New taxes brought in $12,845.22, which was turned over by Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert. At the same time Weikert collected $671.16 in delinquent taxes.

Rocky Says His Chances Unharm

WASHINGTON (AP)—Associates said Tuesday that New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has marked October on his calendar for an expected public plunge into the 1964 GOP presidential nomination contest.

Rockefeller's performance at an Albany news conference Tuesday strengthened the conviction of Republican leaders that the governor has every intention of fighting for the nomination. One of them said he had been informed this would be confirmed by an October announcement.

Rockefeller himself brought up the matter of his political future. When reporters popped questions at him, he replied that he still considers himself a potential candidate for the nomination and does not believe his remarriage will damage his chances of getting it.

BURRILLVILLE, R.I. (AP)—A Rhode Island mother saw one son graduated from the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., Wednesday but was too late to see a second son graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, commanding the First Army, made one of his planes available to Mrs. Margaret Shepard of Burrillville. But fog at Groton, Conn., delayed the plane's takeoff so that Mrs. Shepard missed the West Point commencement.

Mrs. Shepard and her newly commissioned son, Coast Guard Ens. Arthur B. Shepard arrived at West Point in time to congratulate new Army 2d Lt. John T. Shepard.

Superrockets To Lift Vast Spaceships To Mars Are To Be Ready For 1975 Effort

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A new generation of superrockets, capable of lifting a "convoy" of four multiton spaceships into orbit, could be ready for a manned expedition to Mars in 1975 if the nation decided to make a try then, an industrial space technologist said today.

The rockets, far surpassing anything the United States and presumably even the Soviet Union, now has or is developing, would each range up to 300 feet in height weigh up to nearly 40 million pounds, pack thrusts up to 56 million pounds, and be capable of lofting more than a million pounds of payload at a time into earth orbit for a subsequent getaway on the highway to Mars.

Andrew Kalitinsky of the General Dynamics Corp., San Diego, Calif., told about it in making the first report on a government-commissioned study to explore possibilities for developing so-called NOVA launch vehicles.

NOVA has long been a concept in the minds of space engineers. Conceived as a possible good bet for manned planetary missions, it would call for a rocket that would make even the Saturn 3 man-to-the-moon rocket look puny. The Saturn 5 will pack a 7½-million pound thrust.

PREPARING FOR FIRE CARNIVAL

The McSherrystown Fire Company met Wednesday night in the fire hall with Edward Fuhrman Jr. in charge. Minutes were read by the secretary, Daniel Greenholt.

The company announced that work is progressing at the carnival grounds and members are asked to help evenings. On Saturday the footers will be poured and next Monday and Tuesday block work will start. All members are asked to give their time to this project to have things ready for the big carnival and bicentennial celebration.

The company voted to go along with the Hanover area firemen in a Quick Call system. This could mean one number for fire calls could be used. These would be made to a place where someone is on duty at all times, thereby providing more protection and service to the area citizens.

COMPANY PRAISED

It was announced that all coins, with the exception of North St. were given out to the residents. North Street will be done on Monday night at 6:30 p.m. by several volunteers.

The carnival committee announced all entertainment is arranged for.

The company had receipts of $320 and bills of $806.90.

The Relief Association voted to put $4,000 in certificates of deposit. The company received a letter of commendation for their participation in the dangerous train wreck fire recently.

TANEYTOWN — A meeting of all taxpayers in Taneytown will be held June 18 at 8:15 o'clock in the high school to determine if the borough will purchase "Antrim" for additional park facilities. According to an announcement from borough council, "the property would lend itself ideally to the development of additional park facilities which would include tennis courts and another little league baseball diamond. The mansion house would serve for organizational meetings and a town office, and an historic landmark would be preserved."

Tabulation of the election of councilmen Monday evening was: Neal Powell, 188; George Naylor Jr., 143; Glenn Bollinger, 83; Thomas H. Smith, 83; George Hemler, 79; Stanley King, 69.

Following the election the treasurer reported a balance of $23,981.03 in the general account and $7,341.54 in the parking meter fund.

The new charter was adopted and copies will be distributed by councilmen to residents. The charter becomes law after four weeks of publication and 30 days.

Council heard several complaints about residents who are dumping garbage and refuse at various locations in town and warned offenders that steps will be taken to correct the practice.

Sherrystown Knights of Columbus was opened with prayer by Past Grand Knight B. I. Noel. Reports of officers were approved. A donation of $25 was given to the Seminary collection and $100 to the Home Association toward repairs to the building.

FORCED TO SHIP

They surprised four Venezuelan national guardsmen and lined them up inside with three U.S. Army officers, four U.S. Army sergeants, two Venezuelan civilian employees and the son of an Army officer.

They forced all to strip except Col. J. K. Chenuit, 46, deputy chief of the mission, and his 15-year-old son.

Chenuit and the other officers, identified as Maj. T. C. Blevins and Maj. B. Gardner, were not armed.

The terrorists, armed with pistols, fled with the U.S. uniforms, the Venezuelan guards' four sub-machine guns, an army pistol, and the men's rings and watches.

FORMERLY SHEELY'S CHURCH
Mt. Calvary was formerly called Sheely's Church and was erected on land donated by John Sheely, a Methodist, who became interested in Mt. Calvary in its beginning. He died, however, before the completion of the building. The church was the outgrowth of revival meetings held in a grove on the Sheely farm.

Early leaders at Mt. Calvary were Jacob Sheely, James McIlvaine, John Settle, John Stover and their families. Most of the charter members are buried in the cemetery adjoining the church. History of the church for a period of 30 years is very vague. After many boundary changes Mt. Calvary is now part of the Orrtanna EUB Charge. The church is located near the famous landmark known as Sheely's Round Barn.

There were 17 million Americans aged 65 and over in the nation last year, an increase of four million from 10 years ago.

SIX BURNED AS GAS EXPLOSION FIRES OIL WELL

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—A gas explosion set a new oil well aflame near Warren Wednesday night and burned six persons, two of them seriously.

The blast and fire in Youngsville, ten miles west of this northwestern Pennsylvania town, burned four co-owners of the well and two of their friends, turning a happy occasion into one of sadness in a matter of seconds.

Taken to Warren General Hospital were:

Walter E. Blakeslee, 40, poor condition.
His wife, Martha, 40, fair.

Willis Fitzgerald, 64, father of Martha Blakeslee, critical.

Walter L. Blakeslee, 62, father of Walter E. Blakeslee, fair.

Marion Howles, 42, burns of the hand and face.

His wife, Helen Howles, 38, fair.

The three Blakeslees and Fitzgerald had interests in the new well, which had begun producing only Wednesday morning and had yielded about 75 barrels of oil.

The co-owners and their friends, the Howles, all residents of Youngsville, gathered Wednesday night at the well, which was feeding oil through a pipe into a nearby storage tank.

Also present was Justice of the Peace Chester Wroblewski, 41, whose home is about 250 feet from the well.

HAIR ON FIRE

Wroblewski said young Blakeslee had just plugged a flood light into an electrical circuit when the explosion occurred between the well and storage tank, apparently from an accumulation of gas.

"I heard the thing go and I ran," Wroblewski said. "I got behind some water tanks. As soon as I got back there I turned, and I saw young Blakeslee with his hair on fire. I went back in and got him out."

"Then I saw Mr. Fitzgerald. He was completely enveloped in flames. I rolled them both in the grass. That put out the fire on them. I got my hands burned a little."

STILL BURNING

Wroblewski, who treated his hand burns himself, said the other four victims managed to run from the burning area without help.

The well was still burning, but Youngsville firemen extinguished it about 45 minutes after the blast.

Today is the younger Blakeslees' 20th wedding anniversary, and they had planned a combined celebration of the anniversary and the new well.

Castro's Cuba — Land Of Turmoil And Terror

Inside Cuba Today: TROUBLE FOR CASTRO

By FRANCIS STILLEY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The iron fist of Castro communism is unable to keep a tight grip on a Cuba seething with unrest.

Almost daily in recent weeks there have been new reports of violence directed at the bearded dictator's regime and his Russian cohorts.

These attacks have come from within and without the country. Some have been exceedingly cunning in form, while others have consisted of outright shooting assaults on Castro militia.

Such underground activity appears to be mounting, even in the face of the ruling regime's growing armed strength.

CRIPPLING ECONOMY

Much of the interior resistance is directed at crippling the country's economy.

Refugees reaching Florida in mid-May told of incidents in which rats with torches tied to their tails were sent racing through dry tobacco and sugar cane fields, setting them afire.

Further devastation was reported from phosphorus tossed into fields and ignited by the hot sun.

Filtering out of Cuba by one means or another were accounts of such other episodes as:

A raid on nickel mines near Mayari, Oriente province, in which two Russian guards and four Cuban militiamen were said to have been killed. According to the report, 12 Cubans were executed for the deed.

HIT-RUN ATTACK

A hit-and-run attack on a militia barracks near Havana, with an undetermined number of casualties inflicted on Castro militia-men.

An airplane bombing of a refinery at Havana, presumably by an aircraft operated by Americans. This operation has been shrouded by conflicting reports as to whether the bombs exploded and as to the identity of the bombers. Apparently little if any damage was done.

Numerous coastal raids by Cuban exile organizations operating from the United States and elsewhere. They continue despite U.S. government displeasure over those from American soil and efforts to halt them. The exiles have vowed there will be more to come.

UNDERGROUND ARMS

Continued shipments of underground arms into Cuba from the outside.

Hotbeds of counter-revolutionary activity in the Matanzas Province and the Escambray Mountains.

There is virtually unanimous agreement, both inside and outside Cuba, that such harassing tactics cannot succeed in liberating Cuba and that only a massive attack from the outside forces can do it. Nevertheless, anti-Castro Cubans seem determined to make life as miserable as possible for him.

There are ample indications that the misery they are creating is considerable, even though many have lost their lives doing it.

REIGN OF TERROR

Refugees say there is an increasing reign of terror from the Castro forces, with almost daily firing squad executions in some cities.

"People who speak against the regime are sometimes shot down in the streets of Matanzas," said one refugee. "Others are accused, tried by the people's courts, and shot immediately."

The edginess of the Castro government was evidenced by a recent action near the Bay of Pigs, where the ill-fated 1961 invasion was launched. The government seized 42 taxi cabs and the business of 22 shopkeepers, saying all the taxi drivers and shop operators were "directly or indirectly joined to counter-revolutionary activities."

Refugees say that the sugar and tobacco crops are in ruins because of sabotage, lassitude of farmers and poor Communist management.

FORCED TO SERVE

"Soldiers and others are forced to serve without pay as 'voluntary workers' to cut the cane, but there are not enough of them," said a Cuban who recently arrived in Miami. "Time is running out and most of the crop will be lost."

Confirmation of many such claims has come from none other than the government itself, although the confirmation was in somewhat left-handed fashion.

On May 1 Fidel Castro's brother and deputy, Raul, the armed forces minister, appealed to Cuban workers to increase productivity. He rapped loafers, bureaucrats and slackers for thwarting the nation's economic development.

NEED CANE CUTTERS

About the same time, Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, head of the Agrarian Reform Institute, said the country lacked 160,000 cane cutters in comparison with the past.

Exiles also claim that Russian and Czech technicians have "created chaos in Cuban industry" through failure not only to increase the industrial output but even in some cases to keep factories operating at all. The exiles said the Castro regime was frantically scouring Europe for technicians who could do better.

The Voice of America and Cuban exile radio stations have been bombarding Cuba with broadcasts. One recent refugee said at least 90 per cent of the people in Cuba listen to the Voice of America. Shortly afterward Cuba started trying to "jam" the broadcasts.

200,000 FLEE

Meanwhile, some 200,000 Cubans have fled their homeland and more are pouring out as fast as they get the chance — by plane, steamship, sailboat, raft or rowboat.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk recently estimated that "several hundred thousands" more are anxious to leave.

Thus while Castro still wields the whip hand, and with a vengeance, he is having troubles aplenty — and from all indications he is going to have even more of them in the future.

STOLEN AUTO CRASH FATAL

TIOGA, Pa. (AP) — One Bradford County teen-ager is dead and another seriously injured after the stolen car they were driving crashed near Tioga Wednesday.

State police at Mansfield identified the victim of the crash on Route 287, two miles south of Tioga, as Myron Osborne, 15, Millerton Rd.

Ronald Snay, 16, Springfield, Bradford County, was taken in guarded condition to Wellsboro Hospital.

Authorities said they did not know who was driving the car at the time of the 3 p.m. accident.

State police said the auto the boys were driving was stolen between 2 and 2:30 p.m. Wednesday from the parking lot at the Troy Community Hospital.

RADIATION BELT STIFFER

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—American space scientist Wilmot N. Hess said Wednesday the Van Allen radiation belt surrounding the earth was increased during 1962 by three Soviet high altitude nuclear explosions in addition to the single U.S. blast.

The Soviet explosions were detected Oct. 22 and 23 and Nov. 1, Hess reported to the Space Science Symposium of "Cospar," the international committee on science research.

The Russians protested the United States high altitude blast in the Pacific last July.

All four explosions added temporarily to the radiation particles in the Van Allen belt, said Hess.

They also greatly increased man's knowledge of the lifetime of the particles and other information needed in preparation for travel to outer space, said Hess, of the Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Md.

STRIP MINE BILL PASSES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate administration's bituminous strip mining bill won overwhelming approval in the House Wednesday against warnings from the strip mine industry that it would put many operators out of business.

The vote was 196-3, a distinct surprise in light of the controversy surrounding strip mine legislation of past sessions.

Opposing the bill were three Republicans: Reps. Ralph A. Marsh and Austin M. Harrier of Clearfield County and L. Eugene Smith, Jefferson.

CIVIL RIGHTS PLEDGE GIVEN BY GOP CHIEFS

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican senators have promised to support additional civil rights legislation. But they remained mute on whether they would try to crush a Southern filibuster.

The Republican position was hammered out Wednesday at the second of two conferences promoted by Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York, an ardent supporter of civil rights legislation.

No agreement was reached at the initial two-hour meeting. Then, at the end of a three-hour session in late afternoon, the Republicans approved a statement saying they will "support further appropriate legislation required to help solve the problems of our nation in the field of civil rights."

NOT ALL THERE

Not all the 33 Republican senators attended the closed meetings — the exact number present could not be determined — and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, chairman of the conference, said there was some division on adopting the statement.

"I couldn't say it was unanimous," he said, "but I can truthfully say I am confident the ayes carried it."

Approved by voice vote, the policy statement is not binding on the GOP senators, he said.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

NEW SCHOOL: Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy are hunting for a new school for their three older boys but on second thought have decided against a private boarding school with no Negro pupils.

The boys now attend Our Lady of Victory, an integrated Roman Catholic school in the District of Columbia.

An official of the Landon School for Boys in suburban Bethesda, Md., disclosed Saturday that Kennedy had applied for admission for the three boys and that Robert Jr., 9, had gone so far as to take the school's entrance test. The examinations for Joseph, 10, and David, 7, were put off because of mumps, he said.

Landon's headmaster said the school has no Negro pupils but does have a policy against barring any boy because of race or religion. The boarding school, he said, has a long waiting list and bases admission on competitive examinations.

A spokesman for the attorney general said Wednesday the Kennedys haven't made up their minds about where the boys will be enrolled but that Landon is no longer under consideration.

CATHEDRAL SHELTER: The crypts beneath Washington (Episcopal) Cathedral where lie some of the nation's most honored dead have been equipped with fallout shelter supplies.

"I have no choice but to arm my church for human safety," the Very Rev. Francis B. Sayre Jr., the cathedral's dean, told a House Armed Services subcommittee Wednesday.

Dean Sayre, a nephew of former President Woodrow Wilson, whose burial vault is on the cathedral's main floor, said the emergency supplies were moved in during last October's Cuba crisis.

NEW CHAIRMAN: The House has elected Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., to succeed the late Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., as chairman of its Committee on Un-American Activities. Willis had been the committee's ranking majority member.

REJECTION: The State Department has rejected Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's suggestion for U.S.-Cuba talks. Castro's statement favoring such talks was made Tuesday night during a televised report to Cubans on his trip to the Soviet Union. The State Department said Friday the Kennedy administration "has made it clear that communism in this hemisphere is not negotiable."

The post office at the 1964-65 New York World's Fair is expected to process an estimated 200,000 pieces of mail daily. It will offer twice a day delivery seven days a week for thousands of exhibitors.

OLD SHRIVER HOMESTEAD TO OPEN MONDAY

The old Shriver Homestead at Union Mills, one of Maryland's original historic homes, will be open again to visitors starting Monday, for the summer season, according to Prof. Frederic Shriver Klein, curator of the 166-year-old mansion, located on U. S. 140 south of Littlestown.

New displays of Civil War relics and weapons will be exhibited in the ancient brick Mill Museum, also built in 1797, along with original farm machinery, mill machinery and hand tools of the 18th and 19th century. An unusual addition to the museum exhibits is the original wood-paneled interior of the historic Forney House, built in 1731 in Hanover. The colonial home was visited by Washington in 1791, and became a hospital for Union and Confederate wounded during the Battle of Hanover in 1863, when it was surrounded by fighting cavalrymen. The carved pine and poplar mantels and cupboards, preserved from destruction when the home was torn down a few years ago, are unusual examples of fine colonial craftsmanship.

WERT COLLECTION

The museum will also display the J. H. Wert collection of Gettysburg Battlefield relics, gathered in 1863 by a resident of Gettysburg, and considered to be one of the most authentic Civil War collections in existence. The Vincent W. Not collection of Civil War revolvers and pistols will be on display for the first time this summer, representing a wide variety of both conventional and rare handguns.

The Union Mills homestead is a unique Maryland home, built in 1797, and always occupied by members of the same Shriver family for six generations. Its twenty-three rooms contain relics of more than a century and a half of American rural life, because the homestead never changed ownership, and now still contains the furnishings, utensils, toys, tools, musical instruments, heating devices, Civil War relics and necessities of daily living from every period of American national history. The homestead in successive years was a stagecoach

of our business

Why do most drugstores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax...? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity. Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drugstores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.

FIREMEN PUSH THEIR PLANS FOR CARNIVAL

Plans for the annual summer carnival of Alpha Fire Company No. 1 were advanced at the June meeting held on Tuesday evening in the engine house. Forty-six firemen were in attendance.

The carnival will be held Monday through Saturday, August 5-10, on the community playground. The usual carnival attractions, rides, games, concessions, exhibits and refreshments will be featured. Special entertainment is being arranged for each evening. Special prizes will be awarded. Jack E. Rebert, of the carnival committee, urged that members avail themselves to help on the grounds during carnival week.

Monroe G. Morelock, of the parade committee, told the company that the committee has decided against having the firemen's parade, in connection with the carnival, this year; due to many conflicting activities in the area at that time.

ONE FIRE CALL

The house-to-house solicitation, in and about the community, held each year prior to the carnival, will take place July 22-29. The solicitors and their assigned area will be announced later.

President Clyde E. Harner presided at the session, which opened with the singing of "America" and group prayer in unison. After some discussion on the building project, it was decided to table the matter until the next meeting, following further study. Secretary Dennis W. Wallick gave his report.

Jack Rebert, assistant fire chief, reported one call for the month. Also the chiefs and trustees decided to purchase two Indian fire fighters with pumps and one dozen rakes for grass fire use. Truck Foreman Joseph H. Redding reported that all equipment is in good condition. Bills amounting to $239.54 were ordered paid, and receipts for the evening were $53.57.

NOMINATE MEMBERS

The following were nominated for membership in the company: James Ulrich, Dale Bowers, Horace C. Rineman, Joseph McMaster and David Angell. The president appointed Lloyd Harner, Jay D. Basehor and Kenneth Lemmon as the investigating committee. Robert Murren, John W. Spalding and Gerald Daley were elected to membership in the company.

The new social committee for July, August and September was named as follows: Howard O. Myers, William Bowers and David Reaver.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the company on Tuesday, June 25, 8 p.m., one week early, due to the July 4 vacation week.

At the conclusion of business, refreshments were served to the firemen by the social committee consisting of James P. Hahn, Kenneth Lemmon and Fred A. Miller.

KENNEDY FAILS TO USE DIRECT RACIAL APPEAL

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy in 1960 thought a direct talk to the people by the President was an effective way of dealing with the civil rights problem.

But he himself used only one such appeal to reason, and then too late, and apparently doesn't plan another any time soon although the racial problem in civil rights is building up steam and could become critical next Monday.

In 1957 President Eisenhower had to send troops into Little Rock to restore quiet and back up a federal court order that Negro children be admitted to the city's Central High School.

CRITICIZED EISENHOWER
Kennedy, in his 1960 campaign for the presidency, recalled the Little Rock disorders and indirectly criticized Eisenhower for not doing what Kennedy said President Roosevelt would have done: talk to the people.

Events moved toward a torrid and bloody climax last fall when Mississippi's Gov. Ross Barnett defied a federal court order to admit a Negro, James H. Meredith, to the University of Mississippi.

Kennedy had troops in the background, away in the back, when on the night of Sunday, Sept. 30, 1962 he tried to back up the court order and sweep aside Barnett's obstruction by sending U.S. marshals to the school with Meredith. It was at about just that moment when Kennedy went on the air to appeal to Mississippians to be peaceful and respect the authority of the federal government as expressed through the court order. It was too late.

By the time he made the appeal rioting had broken out and lasted all night. Two men were killed. In the end Kennedy had to send in troops.

Last May 11, when peaceful Negro demonstrations in Birmingham had melted into a riot after Negro dwellings had been bombed, Kennedy moved troops into Alabama military bases but didn't send them into the city.

They could be rushed in if trouble began there again. Or they could be rushed next Monday to the University of Alabama if violence breaks out there, as it may.

WALLACE OPPOSITION
Gov. George C. Wallace, ignoring the experience of Barnett, has announced he will keep Negroes out of the university even though a federal court has ordered them admitted.

If he tries it, there may be a repetition of the Mississippi episode.

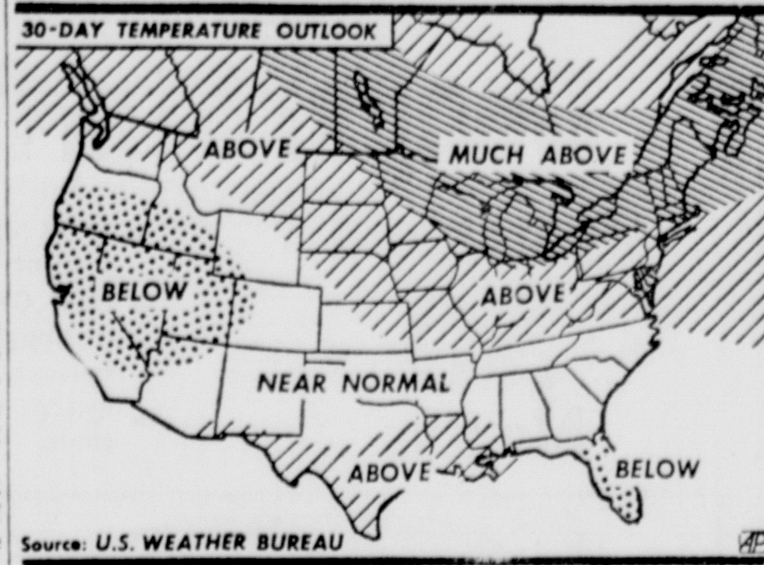

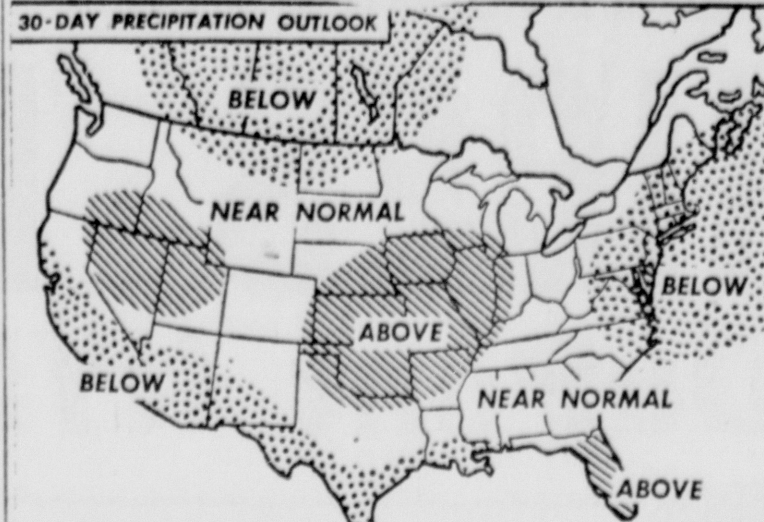

But Kennedy has given no indication he will appeal for peace and quiet through a broadcast to the people of Alabama and at the same time to the people of the country at this time of increasing racial tension over civil rights.

Such a broadcast would, at least, throw an important part of the presidential power behind the government's efforts at desegregation.

What Kennedy is doing is working through the Justice Department, appealing to businessmen to desegregate their establishments, and preparing new civil rights legislation to offer Congress next week.

He has shown a steady reluctance to appeal to the people, or explain his positions or programs to the people, over television and radio. He's done it seldom. Aides have said he doesn't want to overdo it for fear of wearing out his welcome.

Family Food Facts

Meat counters offer many choices in beef, pork, lamb and poultry from fairly abundant supplies, says Harold Neigh, consumer marketing specialist at Penn State.

Selected cuts of beef and fryer chicken are the more prominent meat values in most area stores. Top grades of beef cattle are now selling at a three-year low and prices are expected to decline further as livestock feeders plan to market more beef in the second quarter than the same period in 1962. There is a lag between retail prices and live prices so you won't notice any big drop in retail prices in the immediate future. But, there are more beef supplies than a year ago this time so there's likely to be more weekend specials on beef.

On the other hand, there's likely to be less weekend specials on broiler-fryer chickens than a year ago because of only relatively moderate supplies. During the summer months demand for chicken is at its peak.

Pork prices have now passed their low point but many values are still available in shoulder steaks, butt roasts and canned hams. The peak price is expected in August.

If you noticed an abrupt change in lamb prices, it's because retailers are shifting to spring lambs which are costing them three to four dollars more than the old crop. With the arrival of the new lamb crop, many retailers are featuring lamb in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Lamb-B-Q promotion. This is a campaign by the Pennsylvania Sheep and Wool-growers to remind the public of the goodness of lamb.

Produce markets are virtually overflowing in some lines because production reached a peak in many southern growing regions all at one time. Prices have dropped sharply on such parishes as peaches, watermelons, celery, onions, sweet corn, tomatoes and cabbage. Blueberries and sweet cherries are two new fruit items now arriving on our

INSPECT 28TH TODAY AT HILL

CAMP A. P. HILL, Va. (AP)—The 28th Division of the Pennsylvania National Guard prepared today for an inspection by Brig. Gen. Francis Greenleaf, chief of the Army National Guard Bureau in Washington.

Preparations also were being made for the governor's day review Saturday. Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton will be represented by Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer.

The infantry units of the 28th Division spent the first of four days in the field Tuesday under simulated battle conditions as clear skies prevailed for the first time since the division arrived here.

The latest word on Pennsylvania strawberries is that the cool wet weather has delayed the season but heavy picking should start next week.

D. MAC ARTHUR ASKS FACTIONS TO KEEP WORD

NEW YORK (AP)—Old Soldier Douglas MacArthur has told the warring amateur sport groups to bury the hatchet until after the 1964 Olympic Games—but whether his words will be heeded remains to be seen.

MacArthur said in a bristling statement issued Tuesday that the feuding factions had agreed to do nothing that would keep athletes out of competition and hurt America's international teams.

If they don't keep their word, the five-star general said, they would "well merit the condemnation of every sportsman and, indeed, every patriotic American."

BROKE OUT ANEW
The general was appointed six months ago by President Kennedy to patch up the squabble between the Amateur Athletic Union and the new college-sponsored U.S. Track and Field Federation. The President said the dispute threatened to wreck the U.S. Olympic team for 1964.

MacArthur presided over the dispute in January and again in March but it has broken out again, centered on the National AAU track championships at St. Louis June 20-22. The U.S. team for a scheduled meet in Russia will be picked there.

The feud flared anew early this week when Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference, the largest college group in the country, reminded the ECAC members their athletes should not compete in the AAU meet unless the USTFF sanctions those athletes.

The AAU has steadfastly refused to ask for such sanctioning, leaving the two groups at loggerheads and the college athletes out in the cold.

ASK RELEASE OF EARL SENK

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Frank Earl Senk, an itinerant magazine salesman convicted of murdering a 13-year-old Columbia County girl in 1961, asked the Pennsylvania Supreme Court today to set him free because arresting police allegedly violated his constitutional rights.

Failing that, Senk's attorney asked the state's highest tribunal to order a new trial.

Senk currently is under sentence of death following his conviction in April 1962.

Atty. Gailey C. Keller of Bloomsburg, appeared for the 30-year-old Senk.

Senk was living in Williamsport at the time Jane Mary Benfield was killed on Aristes Mountain near Centralia.

Keller argued that since the confession was not voluntary "it should have been excluded from the trial, and without it there could have been no conviction."

STRIP MINING BILL IN HOUSE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Scranton administration has proposed complete backfilling for certain anthracite strip mining operations.

Its long-awaited bill to regulate the hard coal strip mining industry was sent to the House Tuesday.

The measure's key feature requires refilling to contour of strip mines up to 100 feet in depth and of all pits within 100 feet of a highway or 250 feet of "any occupied dwelling house, public building, school, church, commercial or institutional building."

Pits over 100 feet would be backfilled according to requirements laid down in each case by a three-member reclamation board composed of the mines secretary, a layman and an engineer.

Originally, the administration had considered 150 feet as the dividing point.

Present law requires open mines not more than 75 feet in depth and within 700 feet of any public highway or any building to be filled in such a way as to form a slope of about 45 degrees from the top of the highway to the bottom of the stripping pit.

20th Century-Fox, Dean Martin Agree

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dean Martin and 20th Century-Fox announced jointly Tuesday that litigation between them has been dismissed.

The studio sued Martin a year ago when he refused to work in the movie "Something's Got to Give" after the late Marilyn Monroe was dismissed.

The studio, charging breach of contract, asked $3,339,000 of Martin. He countered by suing the studio for $6,850,000.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—About 50 distinguished visitors became ill of food poisoning after an awards luncheon Tuesday at the U.S. Military Academy.

Although about 25 spent the night in the base hospital, none was seriously ill, said Lt. Col. Everett O. Post, information officer.

How Chester Hospital Was Saved From Closing

Editor's Note: At the last minute Chester Hospital was saved from closing by merger with another hospital. This AP State Spotlight tells how Delaware County's oldest hospital reached that state of affairs, and how its problems could happen in other cities across the state.

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Delaware County's oldest hospital, bearing the name of this city of about 65,000, has been saved from extinction by a proposal for a merger with another hospital.

And all across the state a certain sense of relief is felt, because the obituary of a 71-year-old hospital in one of Pennsylvania's larger cities could not be read with other than agitation.

What might have happened here could happen in other cities of the state, where the number of hospital patients multiplies and the money to pay for their care dwindles.

HEART OF THE MATTER

For that is the heart of the matter at Chester hospital—a large lack of cash to meet the bills of peniless patients. Charity carried Chester to the frontiers of bankruptcy.

The hospital's board of managers announced last March that it seemed hopeless to try to go on. The closing date was set—June 1. The reluctant decision was greeted with dismay. City officials, other civic leaders, labor unions, and the hospital board itself cast about for some way to prevent the closing.

The way was found, but not until the final hours of the last day before the scheduled closing.

RESCUE FROM CROZER

The rescue came from Crozer Hospital, which proposed that it take over the running of Chester Hospital, with a view to merger in due time.

But even that was not accomplished without wrenchings and resentments.

Before the hard times, Chester hospital had a total staff—professional and nonprofessional—of 365 or more. This shrank to perhaps 200, of which about 130 were professional.

Elton Barclay, administrator at Crozer, said the Chester staff would be shifted to the Crozer payroll. A union says, however, that the nonprofessional employees, some with 25 years seniority, are up against dismissal or wage cuts.

THIRD WERE INDIGENTS

Local 116, of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, threatened to use the management of Chester Hospital for breach of contract.

At the moment of transition Chester hospital had 226 beds, of which about 80 were occupied. At least 25 of those patients were indigents. Had the hospital closed to new patients on June 1, the 80 or so would have been moved to other hospitals or discharged, within 30 days.

Chester hospital was born of a great need.

FOLLOWED DISASTER

Back in 1882, an explosion at a fireworks factory here killed 18 firemen and injured 25 others. Authorities said the 18 died because they couldn't be moved to Philadelphia, the nearest place where adequate hospital facilities were available. The old city hall was converted into an emergency hospital; everything was done that could be done; tragically, agonizingly, it simply wasn't enough.

And to further underscore the need for a hospital, the main building of Pennsylvania Military College burned down the day before the plant explosion. No one was killed.

Immediately a demand arose for a proper hospital in the county. Committees were formed, teams went out after money, newspaper appeals were made. But because the campaigners had to start from scratch, and because so much money was hard to raise quickly in those days, it was 10 years before the fund was raised in full. Work had been started on the hospital however, and it was opened on Dec. 16, 1892.

8 HOSPITALS NOW

Today, Delaware County has eight hospitals, counting the combined Chester-Crozer. The people's needs have grown apace, of course and that's why the prospect of losing Chester moved so many to such anxiety.

Since 1943, the hospital management said, Chester had an accumulated loss of $1,752,033 on its free inpatient services, and a further loss of $180,554 in the provision of clinic and emergency services to the poor.

No one ventured a guess as to what percentage of Chester's patient over those years had been persons unable to pay their way, but management said it was consistently large.

DOLLARS AND CENTS

It is estimated that a patient's care costs $27 a day. To that total,

LATE PARTIES HELP SENIORS LET OFF STEAM

By JOY MILLER

AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK AP — This is the season of graduation and senior proms, a time in which children become adults overnight and their parents age noticeably.

And school officials? A Maryland principal, Arnold N. Fleagle of Walkersville High, says June, a very critical month, the state contributes $9.75, if the patient is an indigent.

"So at that rate, how could we avoid going deeper and deeper into the hole?" said one hospital official. "It was clear that somebody should have shared the burden to a greater extent. But no one did."

A natural question is: Why didn't other hospitals take more charity cases?

One answer, quite unofficially, naturally, was the laconic, "Because they lost money on them, I guess."

The other hospitals did not coming parties used to cause trouble. Now numerous all-night nondrinking parties held under parental supervision have resulted in improved school-community relations.

Some seniors, though, insist there are scads of unchaperoned parties, including jaunts to Washington for drinking and to Baltimore for better restaurants.

The parents' promenade in Barberton, Ohio, is typical of parent-sponsored affairs designed to lure youngsters away from hazardous celebrations.

After the prom given by the juniors for the seniors ends at 11:30 p.m., the seniors are escorted to another building. There civic leaders and school officials serve the kids dinner prepared by the parents. The young people dance some more, watch a show produced by the parents. Finally breakfast is served and the seniors go to church around 6:30 a.m.

ALL-NIGHT DANCING

In Dallas, where traditionally the proms are formal school dances held at a downtown hotel, parents arrange an all-night dancing party at a country club will breakfast later. Many of the young celebrants, however, get so tired by 4:30 a.m. they're taken home to bed without waiting for breakfast.

PARENTS CHAPERONE

Maryland's deputy state superintendent of schools, Dr. David W. Zimmerman says all-night drink-

Close Voting In Taneytown Races

In a close councilmanic race, 228 Taneytown voters Monday re-elected two councilmen and chose a new one.

Glenn Bollinger, office manager for a Littlestown firm won the election with 85 votes and will succeed Councilman Edward Baumgardner who was not a candidate.

Bollinger defeated Thomas H. Smith, a bread truck operator, who got 83 votes.

Councilman Noel, a local safety engineer, who has been a member of council for the last six years, won re-election with 108 votes, and Councilman George Naylor Jr., an assistant cost accountant, was elected to council for a second term with 143 votes.

The defeated candidates included George Hemler, who received 79 votes, and Stanley King, a plumber, who got 69 votes.

dance hall for a post-prom party in Laconia, N.H. and in Nashua, N.H., a bank sponsors an all-night rock 'n' roll session after the prom.

But, no matter where it is, Miami or Pretty Prairie, Kan., parents have the prom happen to them only once per child. For long-suffering school officials it comes every year, and sometimes that seems too often.

Catholics Await Election Of Pope John's Successor

EDITOR'S NOTE — Bennet M. Bolton has been an AP Vatican correspondent for the past two years. In the following article, second of three, on the life of Pope John XXIII, Bolton brings out some of the personal qualities which endeared the 261st pontiff to Catholics around the world.

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — In a matter of weeks the beehive crown of the Roman Catholic Church will be placed on the head of a new Pope.

The world's half billion Roman Catholics will have a new spiritual ruler possessing the titles of vicar of Jesus Christ, bishop of Rome, supreme pontiff of the universal Church, patriarch of the West, primate of Italy, archbishop of the Roman Province and sovereign of the state of Vatican City.

What qualities should a man bring to this office that Roman Catholics consider the bridge between heaven and earth?

Pope John XXIII brought to the papacy the experiences of both diplomat and pastor, gained from 23 years abroad as an apostolic legate and five years in the important see of patriarch of Venice.

INDEPENDENT MIND

The north Italian farm family from which he came was very much aware, when he celebrated his first mass in August 1904, that Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was now Father Roncalli.

The newly ordained priest was sent in 1904 to Bergamo, near his beloved birthplace of Sotto il Monte, as secretary to a remarkable bishop.

Father Roncalli's 10 years with Bishop Giacomo Radini-Tedeschi of Bergamo, while simultaneously serving as a professor at the diocesan seminary, did much to form the independent cast of mind that marked his papal reign.

Pope Benedict XV called Father Roncalli to Rome in 1921 to reorganize the Italian Society for the Propagation of the Faith, a nationwide mission-supporting activity that reached down to parish level. Father Roncalli wrote a new constitution for the society. He was made a monsignor.

BECAME BISHOP

Four years later Msgr. Roncalli became a titular bishop. That same year, 1925, Pope Pius XI sent him as a Vatican diplomat to Sofia, Bulgaria. The job went so well that he was raised in five years from apostolic visitor in Bulgaria to apostolic delegate there.

In 1935 he was made a titular archbishop and became apostolic delegate to Turkey and Greece.

In recognition of his diplomatic skill he was appointed papal nuncio to France in December 1944. It was a delicate post. Relations between France and the Vatican were strained. Many wartime French resistance leaders were angry because the previous nuncio had lived in Vichy, capital of defeated France.

Archbishop Roncalli mended the situation so swiftly that in three months France sent philosopher Jacques Maritain to the Vatican to resume normal diplomatic relations.

Archbishop Roncalli's days in France came to an end in January 1953, when Pope Pius XII made him a cardinal and three days later named him patriarch of Venice. It was his first assignment inside Italy in 38 years.

READ EXTENSIVELY

During his long years away from the Vatican Angelo Roncalli found time to read extensively from the writings of Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, the Vatican secretary of state who became Pope Pius XII in 1959.

Those writings and discourses, applying Roman Catholic teaching to problems across the range of modern politics and sociology, were absorbed by a man who later, as Pope, would shape them with his own individual outlook into concrete actions.

President Vincent Auriol of France gave Angelo Roncalli his red cardinal's biretta, following old custom, on Jan. 12, 1953. Three months later Auriol conferred on the departing cardinal the award of commander of the French Legion of Honor.

The people of Venice grew to love their patriarch during his five years there. He visited every parish in his jurisdiction, built 30 new parishes, ordered a new seminary and expanded countless projects and programs.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It is accepted as show business gospel that in every comedian beats the heart of a hidden Hamlet.

But Nanette Fabray, one of the blithest comedienne of our day, harbors no frustrated hopes of playing Lady MacBeth. No tragic tears for her, thank you.

"I adore light comedy," said Nan, who is winding up a nine-month role as First Lady in Irving Berlin's Broadway musical, "Mr. President," in which she is costarred with Robert Ryan.

"GRADUATE TO COMEDY"

"The only thing is that musical comedy is looked down on as a second-class citizen in the performing arts. Drama is considered the grand lady, the matriarch, of the theatrical world.

"Actually, I've found that most musical comedy performers can do a good job in drama. Look at Gertrude Lawrence, Mary Martin, Red Buttons. But the step the other way is rare.

"In the theater you have to start with drama. You can graduate to comedy only if you're well-trained. To me, comedy is the highest form of theatrical endeavor, requiring more understanding and a better sense of timing."

TAUGHT BY TURPIN

Nan, who started as a tap dancer at the age of 3, played in the old "Our Gang" comedies, and learned mimicry from that cross-eyed master of the silent screen, Ben Turpin.

After growing up, however, she switched to ingenue roles in dramatic plays. It was producer George Abbott who advised her to return to light comedy in "High Button Shoes."

Miss Fabray went through an emotional ordeal a few years back, complicated by a divorce, career crises, and fear of encroaching deafness.

EASIER THAN GLASSES

Today all those troubles have melted away. Nan is profoundly happy with her second husband, screenwriter Randal MacDougall, and their 4-year-old son, Jamie.

"Because of my hearing loss," she recalled, "I used to try to make people adjust to my world. It was my husband who convinced me this was ridiculous—so we went out and bought a hearing aid."

"Now I wear it everywhere—including onstage. I couldn't work without it. People who really need a hearing aid but don't wear one don't realize what a whole new world awaits them. It's fantastic. And a hearing aid is easier to wear than glasses."

Nan, whose own hearing aid can't be seen beneath her reddish-brown hair, said the gadget has an added advantage.

"I find it a big help," she said.

"to be able to turn it off, get rid of life's harsh noises, and enjoy the quiet. It is beautiful sometimes to be able to retreat to a peaceful glade of my own making with one little flick of my hearing aid."

Nan and her family are currently camping indoors at the same hotel here in which President Kennedy keeps a suite, and she and her son have a speaking acquaintance with him.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — James Z. Reho, 20, Williamstown, was killed Tuesday in a mine accident while working inside the pit situated north of this north Dauphin County community.

Deputy Coroner S. E. Herrold said Reho apparently was cut on the leg by a spinning wheel. A large artery was cut, Herrold said and the victim died — probably from shock and hemorrhage — before he could be brought to the surface.
